A WILLING WITNESS

Davitt Gives His Testimony Before the Parnell Commission.

THE CLAN-NA-GAEL IS ALL RIGHT,

Although Some of its Members May Have Been Criminals.

PROMINENT IRISH LEADERS IN AMERICA

LONDON, July 2.-Mr. Michael Davits was examined before the Parnell Commission to-day. Mr. Davitt declared that there was no truth in the account given by Le Caron before the commission concerning proposals of John Devoy being submitted to Mr. Parnell. Mr. Parnell had nothing to do with witness' visit to America in 1878 Mr. Davitt stated that while in America he attended meetings of the Clan-na-Gael, at which he explained the object of the Land League, and tried to win the Clan-na-Gael to its suy port.

The Clan-na-Gael, he said, included some of the best Irishmen in America. It was no more a murder club than was the Carleton Club of London. There was no alliance between the Clan-na-Gael and the League in Ireland. The League movement in America won the support of all the Irish in America to Mr. Parnell. Mr. Davitt said be never met a better man as a philanthropist and a Christian than Patrick Ford. He was very sorry that for a few months after the League was established Mr. Ford openly advocated the use of dynamite.

Witness wrote to him expostulating against his indorsement of such a line of action, and ultimately Mr. Ford returned to the policy adopted by Mr. Parnell's followers, and now honestly advocates constitutional agitation. Witness said he himself was opposed to the use of dynamite, because it was an immoral and unmanly style of warfare.

WHEN FORCE IS ALL RIGHT.

WHEN FORCE IS ALL RIGHT. He was not opposed to physical force if in resorting thereto there was a reasonable chance of success. The League did not provide for the circulation of the Irish World in Ireland Mr. Ford sent copies over through the "spread-the-light fund," and witness paid the postage. The League did not circulate the letter of John Devoy on a new departure, extracts from which were quoted by Attorney General Webster, counsel for the Times.

ster, counsel for the Times.

Mr. Davitt said he had known Alexander Sullivan since 1878, and had the highest opinion of Mr. Davitt said he had known Alexander Salivan since 1878, and had the highest opinion of his ability as a lawyer, his character as a citizen and his honor as a man. He did not believe him to be capable of any dishonorable act. Witness returned to Ireland from America in December, 1880. He had then framed and issued a circular to the Irish people, and had delivered 39 speeches denouncing outrages. He believed outrages were due to the agitation of local agrarian bedies, composed chiefly of sons of small tenant farriers.

When the witness was released from prison on May 6, 1882, Mr. Parnell and Mr. Dillon had informed him that they were hopeful of a change in the Government's policy. Witness was glad that there was a prospect of agitation ceasing. He disliked agitation and would willingly abandon it to-morrow if he saw some justice done to Ireland. He could not abandon it otherwise.

ONE EPISODE.

In reference to the Phonix Park murders Mr. Davitt said: "Mr. Parnell came to me or the Sunday following the day of the murder utterly broken down at the news. He said 'Davitt, I shall send my resignation to Cork to night. I refuse to stay in the movement when night. I refuse to stay in the movement when irresponsible men of whom we know nothing can come behind our backs and perpetrate such deeds. "It took all my influence," said the witness, "to dissuade him from resigning. We immediately had circulated throughout Ireland a manifesto condemning the murders. There was absolutely no ground for the suggestion that I or any of my colleagues were in any way privy to the crimes."

Mr. Davitt continued: "Beyond stating publicly in New York in July, 1882, that I had severed my connection with the revolutionary body, I expressed no dissent of the Fenians. I did not attend any meeting of the Clan-na-Gael in 1880. I believe that murders were committed by the Clan-na-Gael, but the perpetrators certainly did not have the sanction of the governing body, nor the approval of the leaders. When I was Organizing Secretary I communicated with the member of the Supreme Council for my district." communicated with the member of the Su preme Council for my district."

Attorney General Webster—Who was he?

Mr. Davitt—I cannot tell you. It would be a gross breach of trust to divulge his name. If he is still in business in Eu_land he might be ruined if the fact of his connection with the council became known. A CHANGE OF WORDS.

The Attorney General said he would not press the question now, and the witness, con-tinuing, said that in a letter which be had written he had used the word "pen," meaning revolver. He declined to say to whom the letter

The Attorney General-Was it Arthur For-Mr. Davitt—I cannot say without possibly injuring a man who greatly wronged me.

Presiding Justice Hannon said the Court respected the motive for witness' reticence, but could not recognize it as an excuse for not answering. Mr. Davitt thereupon explained that the man to whom the letter was written had conceived a hatred of another member of the League, and wished to murder him. Witness wrote to him, appearing to sanction the act he meditated, but really to gain time until he could write to two superior officials and act he meditated, but really to gain time until he could write to two superior officials and ask them to dissuade the man from carrying out his purpose. The expression used in the letter was: "Whoever is employed, do not let lim use the pen we have been using."
Witness wrote to the two superior officers about the matter. He could not tell their names. He believed that both were now in America. Mr. Davitt said the friend to whom was addressed the letter in which the word pen appeared was now in America, and he pow pubwas addressed the letter in which the word per appeared was now in America, and he now put liciy appealed to him to allow him to divulg

ABOUT THE SPEAK-EASIES.

A Campaign Planned and Some Suits Already Entered.

County License Agent, R. S. P. McCall, said yesterday that he did not believe that there was near as many "speak-casies" as were talked about, and that the number was being reduced each day. Continuing, he said: "I intend to get a list of persons who have paid the special tax, and compare it with my list. I have no doubt it will give us some pointers. The reason I have been somewhat slow about prosecutions is because it is the duty of each constable to make his returns of illegal liquor selling, and I want to give them a fair chance. It is true the number of such returns they have made is ridiculously small, but from the intimation they received from the court they will do their duty more in conformity with their oath than heretofore. In the meantime I am not asleep and have some cases already under consideration which will be brought to light in a few days. If the constables fail to make proper returns then I shall commence a vigorous campaign." doubt it will give us some pointers. The reason Constable McInerney, of Alderman Reilly's office, arrested an Italian named Nepole Moramo yesterday, on a charge of selling liquor without a license, preferred by John Colich. The parties reside at Sandy Creek.

A Funny Assault. James Denhoim is on trial on a charge o assault and battery. The case is a peculiar one. Denholm was driving along Frankstown avenue in a buggy. Though warned not to, and

The Most Agonizing, Itching, Burning, and Bleeding Eczemas Cured.

Eczema in its worst stages. A raw sore from head to feet. Hair gone. Doctors and hospitals fail. Tried everything. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies for $6.

I am cured of a loathsome disease, eczema, in its worst stage. I tried different doctors and been through the hospital, but all to no purpose. The disease covered my whole body from the top of my head to the soles of my feet. My hair all came out, leaving me a complete raw sore. After trying everything, I heard of your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, with CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, I find myself cured at the cost of about $6. I would not be without the CUTICURA REMEDIES in my house, as I find them useful in many cases, and I think they are the only skin and blood medicines.

A Most Wonderful Cure.

I have had a most wonderful cure of salt rheum (Eczema). For five years I have suffered with this disease. I had it on my face, arms and hands. I was mable to do anything whatever with my hands for over two years. I tried hundreds of remedies, and not one had the least effect. The doctor said my case was incurable. I saw your advertisement, and concluded to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES: and incredible as it may seem, after using one box of CUTICURA, and two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP, and two bottles of CUTICURA RESOLV-ENT, I find I am entirely cured. Those who think this letter exaggerated may come and see me for themselves. me for themselves. GRACE P. HARKHAM, Belle River, Ontario
